

Guide to Adult Immunizations

CDC Suggested Adult Immunizations 65 years and older

- Influenza
 - 1 dose yearly, often Oct-May
 - Covered by most insurances* including Medicare B (co-payment or $15-40)
- Tetanus, diphtheria, pertussis (Td/Tdap)
 - 1 dose
 - Tdap if in contact with <12 month old children
 - Otherwise Td or Tdap
 - Covered by most insurances* (co-payment or $25-60)
- Zoster
 - 1 dose
 - Medicare part D and most insurances* (co-payment or $200-250)
- Measles, mumps, rubella (MMR)
 - 1 dose needed only if high risk
 - Covered by some insurances* (co-payment or $150-200)
- Pneumococcal (2 doses per lifetime)
 - 1 dose
 - Most insurances* including Medicare part D (co-payment or $60-65)
- Meningococcal
 - 1+ doses needed only if high risk
 - Most insurances* (co-payment or $100-150)
- Hepatitis A
 - 2 doses needed only if high risk
 - Some insurances* (co-payment or $60-300)
- Hepatitis B
 - 3 doses needed only if high risk
 - Some insurances and Medicare B (co-payment or $120-370)

Contraindications: Varicella, Zoster, and MMR not to be used in persons who are pregnant or are immunocompromised (HIV, AIDS)

 May be administered by a certified pharmacist, all vaccines should be otherwise be available through your primary physician

* Most insurances refers to nation wide insurances questioned (Aetna, Medica, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, United Healthcare etc.)

Co-payments are decided by insurance carrier and cash prices are based on national averages